

AUSTRALIAN
FOODSERVICE
ADVOCACY
BODY

MEMBERSHIP CHARTER

The Australian Foodservice Advocacy Body (AFAB) is an association created to raise the agenda and unlock the potential of Australia's Foodservice sector.

This Charter outlines a shared vision:

- Help create an environment that increases the productivity and profitability of Australia's Foodservice sector which will deliver jobs, growth and improve industry people's livelihoods.
- Establish a set of guiding principles for AFAB Members to aspire to, and a statement of commitment for AFAB Members to abide by.

3 MAIN PRINCIPLES

- CONNECT
- ADVOCATE
- INTEGRATE

THE RIGHTS OF MEMBERS

As an AFAB Member, you have the right to:

1. be treated with respect in all dealings with AFAB;
2. be kept informed of industry news and information relevant to your organisation;
3. be provided with opportunities and channels to have your say on issues of importance to your organisation;
4. be able to access AFAB's expertise, advice, support and services as appropriate;
5. nominate a representative to serve on committees established by the Directors and/or Advisory (or other) groups established by the Executive;
6. vote at general meetings of AFAB; and
7. access any other service or privilege of AFAB Membership as determined by the Directors/Executive.

THE RESPONSIBILITIES OF MEMBERS

As an AFAB Member, you have the responsibility to:

1. commit to and support AFAB's Vision and Guiding Principles for our industry;
2. support AFAB through engagement, participation and contribution to AFAB activities and initiatives;
3. treat AFAB staff with respect in all engagements and circumstances;
4. advise AFAB in the event of regulatory sanctions and seek advice or assistance (if required);
5. play an active part in contributing to improving the reputation of foodservice in Australia; and
6. exercise your rights and uphold your responsibilities as per this Charter.